November 18th Program California Assemblymember Marie Waldron

Assemblymember Marie Waldron has been involved in North San Diego County for the past twenty years. As a local business owner, she understands the economic impacts of burdensome government regulation and spending on the taxpayers and small businesses. As an elected official since 1998, she has fought for fiscal restraint, revitalizing our neighborhoods and is a strong supporter of public safety.

Having served as Escondido's Deputy Mayor, and as a board member for the North County Transit District, Marie was the city's representative to the League of California Cities, the Regional Solid Waste Association Board, and Escondido's Investment subcommittee. Her commitment to Escondido has been honored by the Escondido Rotary Club with their Outstanding Community Service Award.

Marie and her husband, Steve, have owned and operated Top End Tees Screenprinting and Apparel in Escondido for 20 years. Steve is the founder of the very successful "Cruisin' Grand" hotrod event held in downtown Escondido for the past 13 years. The Waldrons have a 12-year old son.

(Please see Marie's entire biography on our 'Meetings & Speaker's' page.)
