February 17th Program Escondido Fire Chief Mike Lowry

Fire Chief Mike Lowry began his distinguished fire career in 1979 at the Alpine Fire Dept. and then took a position with the US Forest Service for two seasons. He joined the Escondido Fire Department in 1982- rising through the ranks – and became Escondido's appointed Fire Chief in December of 2008.

During Chief Lowry's fire service career, he has received numerous commendations for his service to the community and to other fire districts. Currently Chief Lowry serves as the Southern California Area IV Director for Cal Chiefs. He takes great pride in upholding the mission of the Escondido Fire Dept. which is to serve the public and safeguard the community from the impact of fire, medical and environmental emergencies through education, emergency services, and enforcement.

Under Chief Lowry's leadership, the Fire Dept. continues to be committed to maximizing its financial resources in challenging economic times while continuing to provide a high level of service to the citizens of Escondido.

For Chief Lowry's complete biography, please visit TERC's website: escondidorepublicanclub.com and click on 'Meetings' and then 'Speakers'.
