March 17th Program
Escondido Police Chief
Craig Carter

Police Chief Craig Carter has worked for the Escondido Police Department since 1990 when he was hired as a Police Reserve Officer. Chief Carter was hired as a Police Officer Trainee in 1992 and has risen through the ranks serving as Police Officer until he was promoted to Sergeant in 1998. In January 2005, he was promoted to Lieutenant and then to the position of Police Captain in March 2013, and to Chief of Police in August 2013.

Chief Carter has worked in nearly every division in the Escondido Police Department. Chief Carter was a member of the DUI enforcement team, SWAT, Off-Road Motorcycle Team, and has been a vocal advocate for the Community Policing philosophy. He has served as an incident commander for several of Escondido's critical incidents and was an instrumental part of the team that responded to the San Diego County wildfires in 2004, 2007, and 2010. Chief Carter spent several years as the department's press information officer and even served four years as the police association president.

Chief Carter has a bachelor's degree in Business Management with a minor in Criminal Justice Administration and is a graduate of the POST Command College. His specialties include emergency management mitigation, preparedness, and community policing.

Chief Carter is married and has three adult children. (For more biographical information about Chief Carter, please visit TERC's website: escondidorepublicanclub.com and click on 'Meetings' and then 'Speakers'.)
