May 18th Program

Mike Harrison

Deputy Chief of Staff for
Congressman Duncan D. Hunter

Mike Harrison is the Deputy Chief of Staff in the district office of Congressman Duncan D. Hunter where he has established a proven track record of being proactive and helping to make a positive impact in the San Diego community for over 20 years. Mike is a native Californian who was born in San Diego.

In 1994, Mike interned in Washington, D.C. with former Congressman Duncan L. Hunter and was soon hired to the Congressman's full-time staff. Since that time, Mike has been responsible for working on several important policy issues involving San Diego County, including water management, transportation and infrastructure, natural resources, agriculture, Native-American affairs, small business development, taxes, federal appropriations, education and Veterans affairs. While in Washington, Mike also served as the Congressman's Communications Director and Deputy Chief of Staff before returning home to California.

Since 2007, Mike has been the senior staff member in the local Congressional office working with tribal governments, water agencies, utility and energy companies, local school boards, economic development councils, Chambers of Commerce, the San Diego County Farm Bureau, the San Diego Association of Governments and several federal, state and local agencies and governments.

Mike has announced his candidacy for the California State Assembly in District 71 with a commitment to strong social and fiscal conservative principles. IMPORTANT: Please check out TERC's website, www.escondidorepublicanclub.com, for more detailed information about Mike Harrison and his priorities for serving in Sacramento.
