May 15th Program

Kristin Gaspar –
Supervisor for District #3
San Diego County Board of Supervisors

Kristin Gaspar, Supervisor for District #3 of the San Diego County Board of Supervisors, will be our guest speaker for our Monday, May 15th noontime TERC meeting.

Kristin is the youngest woman ever elected to the San Diego County Board of Supervisors. Prior to being elected in November 2016 as Supervisor, Kristin served as an Encinitas City Council Member and then went on to become the first Mayor of Encinitas.

Supervisor Gaspar is currently serving as the Vice Chair of the Board. She believes in fiscal discipline and accountability. Kirstin is a proponent of protecting the environment and preserving open spaces.

While serving as Mayor, she led the way in building a 44-acre community park in Encinitas and fought to make sure sand on the coastline was replenished. Kristin and her husband, Paul, have three children: Carson, Payton and Addie.

(Please visit TERC's website: escondidorepublicanclub.com for a more information.)
