June 19th Program

Congressman Duncan D. Hunter 50th Congressional District

Congressman Duncan D. Hunter, who represents California's 50th Congressional District consisting of East and Northern San Diego County, is currently serving on a Transportation & Infrastructure Committee, a House Armed Services Committee, and an Education & Workforce Committee.

Congressman Hunter is a native of San Diego and began his first term in the House of Representatives in 2008. He is the first Marine combat veteran of the wars in Iraq and Afghanistan elected to Congress. He is a strong conservative who is committed to strengthening national security, enforcing our borders, creating opportunities for American workers and protecting the interests of taxpayers. He is also a strong proponent of the Second Amendment, protecting traditional marriage and the rights of the unborn. He and his wife, who live in Alpine, are the proud parents of three children.
