Escondido City Manager Jeffrey Epp

Jeffrey Epp joined the City of Escondido in August of 1985 as a Deputy City Attorney. Mr. Epp had previously graduated from the University of Wyoming law school in 1984, and served as a prosecutor for both the City of Rawlins and the City of Cheyenne, Wyoming. After re-locating to Escondido, he held the titles of Deputy, Senior Deputy, and Assistant City Attorney before being appointed as City Attorney in 1996. Throughout his tenure serving as City Attorney, Mr. Epp worked as a key part of the City's senior management team, and worked with several city managers and mayors.

Although contemplating retirement, Mr. Epp agreed to serve the City Council as an Interim City Manager in March of 2017. After three busy months, Mr. Epp agreed to assume the regular position as City Manager. Escondido is a full service, general law City. The City covers approximately 37 square miles, with a population of 148,738 and more than 1,000 part-time and full-time employees. The City has its own Police and Fire Departments, as well as Water and Wastewater Departments. The City is home to a Westfield Mall, Palomar Pomerado Hospital, the Escondido Auto Park, Daley Ranch Recreational Preserve, Kit Carson Regional Park, and Stone Brewing, among many other growing and dynamic businesses.
