Brian Jones - State Senate Candidate

With deep roots in the district, Brian Jones is eager to continue the tradition of bringing conservative leadership for the 38th Senate District.

Since Brian was first elected to office in 2002, he has consistently worked for common-sense policies to reduce the size of government, protect our constitutional rights, and bring reform to Sacramento. During his six years in the State Assembly, Brian received lifetime "A" ratings from the American Conservative Union, the National Federation of Independent Business, Howard Jarvis Taxpayers Association and the California Taxpayers Association. In addition, Brian was named as Outstanding Legislator for 2016 by the California Rifle & Pistol Association for his support of the 2nd Amendment.

Brian currently resides in Santee, CA with his wife, Heather, and their three children.
